

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

5 Metal tubing is bent and shaped to form a metal cage and mounted on a motorcycle. The cage functions to prevent damage to engine case covers, plastic parts, handlebars, pegs, levers, gas tanks, etc. in the event that the motorcycle is inadvertently dropped or accidentally falls over. If such mishaps occur the motorcycle will rest on the cage instead of any of the motorcycle parts.